PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am an accomplished Chief Technology Officer and Web Developer with expertise in strategic planning, project leadership, and driving business growth. I have a track record of processing $700k in payments and serving 30,000 customers. In my current role as CTO at Nexus Finance, I develop long-term strategic plans, manage company-level architecture, and coordinate with vendors and client IT teams. As CEO and Web Developer at Linear, I've generated over $5 million for clients and increased company revenue by 300% in one month through marketing strategies. I have a strong background in web design and development and am currently working on my Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a minor in Innovation & Entrepreneurship from The University of Texas At Dallas.
